FINAL EDITION

At the February Council meeting it was agreed to suspend the publishing of the Tidings. Over the last couple years, it has been a struggle to provide original and relevant content. The pastor's message is another task that takes up an already full and limited schedule. The Bishop's message is available on the Synod website. The devotions, trivia and recipe are all just filler articles. The birthday list has not been published while waiting for the membership information to be updated. The wordsearch was added in order to have an even number of pages.

Any information that we have been given is outdated by the time the next publication is released.

We are willing to continue editing/publishing the Tidings, but at this time it feels like an exercise in futility. If you would like to see the Tidings continue, please let us know.

All the important information that was contained in the Tidings will still be available in other formats. The weekly announcements, the website, the bulletin, and through special announcements. Make sure the office has your correct email and you will be able to receive any important updates.

Worst Day Ever?

by Chanie Gorkin

Today was the absolute worst day ever
And don't try to convince me that There's something good in every day
Because, when you take a closer look,
This world is a pretty evil place.
Even if
Some goodness does shine through once in a while Satisfaction and happiness don't last.
And it's not true that
It's all in the mind and heart
Because
True happiness can be attained
Only if one's surroundings are good
It's not true that good exists
I'm sure you can agree that
The reality
Creates
My attitude
It's all beyond my control
And you'll never in a million years hear me say
Today was a very good day

Now read it from bottom to top
And see what I really feel about my day.
